REGISTERING AUTHORITIES AND OFFICERS

2. Appointment of registering authorities

(1) For the purposes of this Act, the responsible Member shall, by notice in the Provincial Gazette, appoint a registering authority for such area and upon such conditions as he or she may determine from time to time.

(2) The responsible Member may combine the area of any registering authority or any portion thereof with the area of another registering authority and may divide the area of a registering authority into areas for two or more registering authorities.

(3) Where, from or after a specific date, a registering authority (in this subsection referred to as a new registering authority) becomes the registering authority for an area previously under the jurisdiction of another registering authority (including a registering authority appointed under a repealed ordinance or the Road Traffic Act, 1989 (Act No. 29 of 1989)), any reference in this Act or a repealed ordinance to such other registering authority shall, from or after such date, be construed as a reference to such new registering authority.

(4) The powers and functions conferred or imposed upon a registering authority by or under this Act shall be exercised or performed on behalf of that registering authority by such persons as may be Authorised thereto by the registering authority.

3. Appointment of officers

(1) For the purposes of this Act:-

(a) the responsible Member may, subject to the laws governing the Public Service and upon such conditions as he or she may determine, appoint for the Province as many persons as:-

- (i) inspectors of licences;
- (ii) examiners of vehicles;
- (iii) examiners for driving licences;
- (iv) traffic officers; and
- (v) traffic wardens;

as may be necessary;

(b) a local authority which is a registering authority may, upon such conditions as the responsible Member may prescribe by notice in the Provincial Gazette, appoint for its area so many persons as:-

- (i) inspectors of licences;
- (ii) examiners of vehicles; and
- (iii) examiners for driving licences;

as may be necessary;

(c) any local authority or two or more local authorities may jointly, upon such conditions as the responsible Member may prescribe by notice in the Provincial Gazette, appoint for its area or for their areas jointly, as the case may be, so many persons as traffic officers or reserve traffic officers as may be necessary, and such officers shall function:-

- (i) within such area or areas; and
- (ii) with the prior approval of the responsible Member and subject to the conditions of such approval, outside such area or areas;

Provided that the responsible Member may, by notice in the Provincial Gazette, exclude such officers from functioning on any specified public road or portion thereof which is situated within the area of jurisdiction of a local authority;

(d) any local authority may appoint persons as traffic wardens or as reserve traffic wardens to exercise or perform within its area such powers and functions of a traffic officer as the responsible Member may determine: Provided that the responsible Member may:-

- (i) make different determinations in respect of different categories of traffic wardens; and
- (ii) either generally or specifically, impose conditions with regard to the exercise or performance of such powers and functions;

(e) any person or authority determined by the responsible Member by notice in the Provincial Gazette, may, on such conditions and for such areas as may be determined in the notice, appoint any person as an examiner of vehicles.

(2) No person shall be appointed in terms of subsection (1) as an authorised officer unless he or she has been registered and graded in terms of Section 5.

(3) Any person appointed under subsection (1) as an authorised officer, shall upon his or her appointment be issued with a certificate of appointment by the responsible Member, local authority, person or authority concerned, appointing him or her.

(a) an authorised officer shall not exercise any power or perform any function unless he or she is in possession of his or her certificate of appointment.

(b) an authorised officer shall produce his or her certificate of appointment at the request of any person having a material interest in the matter concerned.

4. Application for registration as inspector of licences, examiner of vehicles, examiner for driving licences or traffic officer

(1) A person desiring to be registered as:-

- (a) an inspector of licences;
- (b) an examiner of vehicles;
- (c) an examiner for driving licences;
- (d) a traffic officer;
- (e) reserve traffic officer; or
- (f) traffic warden;

shall apply therefore to the responsible Member in the prescribed manner.

(2) An application referred to in subsection (1) shall be accompanied by the prescribed fees.

5. Registration and grading of officers

(1) If the responsible Member is satisfied that an applicant contemplated in Section 4 complies with the requirements for competency and registration as referred to in Section 3(2) of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, prescribed in relation to the specific category of application, he or she shall register and grade such applicant in the prescribed manner.

(2) Any person registered as an authorised officer in any other province shall be deemed to be registered as an authorised officer in this Province.

6. Suspension and withdrawal of registration of officer

(1) The responsible Member concerned may suspend or cancel the registration of a person registered in terms of Section 5(1) in the prescribed manner, for such period as he or she may deem fit, if:-

- (a) in the opinion of the responsible Member such person is guilty of misconduct in the exercise of his or her powers or the performance of his or her functions; or
- (b) in the opinion of the responsible Member the performance record of such person indicates that he or she is unsuitable for the exercise of the powers or performance of the functions of an officer of the category in which he or she is registered.

(2) The registration of a person referred to in subsection (1) may only be suspended or cancelled after such person had the opportunity to make representations in writing and to show cause, within the period defined by the responsible Member which period shall not be less than 21 days, why the registration should not be suspended or cancelled.

(3) Any person affected by the decision of the responsible Member referred to in subsection (2) may, within 21 days after he or she became aware of the decision, request the responsible Member to give reasons in writing for his or her decision.

(4) If the registration of any person is suspended or cancelled in terms of this Section that person shall forthwith return his or her registration document to the responsible Member concerned who shall keep such document for the period of suspension, or cancel such document, as the case may be.

7. Powers and functions of inspector of licences

In addition to the powers and functions conferred upon him or her by or under this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, an inspector of licences may, subject to the provisions of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 or any other law:-

- (a) by notice in writing as prescribed, direct the owner, operator, driver or person in charge of any vehicle, wherever found, which in his or her opinion does not comply with the requirements for roadworthiness certification provided for in this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 or in any other law, to produce such vehicle for inspection, examination or testing to an appropriately graded testing station for such class of vehicle at a time and place specified in such notice;
- (b) in respect of any motor vehicle, demand from the title holder, owner or operator thereof the production of any document required from such person in respect of that motor vehicle in terms of this Act or the National Road Traffic

Act, 1996, or any like document issued by a competent authority outside the Republic;

(c) require from any instructor:-

(i) where such instructor is engaged in teaching or instructing another person in the driving of a motor vehicle, forthwith; or

(ii) where such instructor is not so engaged, within seven days;

to produce evidence of his or her registration;

(d) examine any motor vehicle in order to satisfy himself or herself whether it is the motor vehicle in respect of which a document referred to in paragraph (b) was issued;

(e) impound any document referred to in paragraph (b) which appears to be or which the officer suspects to be invalid or which has been or appears to have been unlawfully altered or defaced or which is being put to unlawful use, and where any document is so impounded, the inspector shall issue a receipt in respect thereof to the person concerned;

(f) require the owner, operator, driver or person in charge of any vehicle forthwith to furnish his or her name and address, and give any other particulars required as to his or her identification, and where applicable, immediately to produce a professional driving permit;

(g) demand from any person immediately to produce a licence or any other prescribed authorisation authorising him or her to drive a motor vehicle, and to produce any other document which he or she is required to have in respect of any motor vehicle in terms of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996;

(h) impound any licence or document produced to him or her in terms of paragraph (9) which in his or her opinion may afford evidence of a contravention or evasion of any provision of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, and where any licence or document is so impounded, the inspector shall issue a receipt in respect thereof to the person concerned;

(i) require any person, whether or not such person is in any vehicle, to furnish his or her name and address and to give any other particulars required as to his or her identification, as well as such information as is within his or her power to furnish and which may lead to the identification of the owner, operator or driver of such vehicle;

(j) require any person to furnish him or her with any information as is within the power of such person to furnish and which may lead to the identification of the driver, owner, operator or person in charge of a vehicle at any time or during any period; or

(k) at any reasonable time, having regard to the circumstances of the case, without prior notice, and in the exercise of any power or the performance of any function which in terms of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 he or she is authorised or required to exercise or perform, enter any premises on which he or she has reason to believe that any vehicle is kept.

8. Powers and functions of examiner of vehicles

(1) An examiner of vehicles may inspect, examine and test any vehicle in order to determine whether it is roadworthy and for that purpose may dismantle the vehicle or any part thereof or its equipment or accessories: Provided that he or she shall reassemble any vehicle so dismantled unless he or she is requested by the person in charge of the vehicle not to do so.

(2) An examiner of vehicles may drive any vehicle when necessary in the performance of his or her functions, if, in the case of a motor vehicle, he or she is licensed to drive a motor vehicle of the class concerned: Provided that in the case of a physically disabled person the examiner of vehicles may request the holder of an appropriate driving licence to drive the vehicle adapted for physically disabled persons subject to his or her instruction and in his or her presence.

9. Powers and functions of examiner for driving licences

(1) An examiner for driving licences shall test any applicant for a learner's licence or driving licence in the manner and in regard to the matters as prescribed by the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, in order to determine whether such applicant is fit and competent to obtain a learner's or driving licence for the class of vehicle for which he or she applies.

(2) No examiner for driving licenses shall test an applicant for a driving licence in terms of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, unless such examiner himself or herself is licensed to drive a vehicle of the class for which the applicant applies to obtain a driving licence or of the class as prescribed.

10. Powers and functions of traffic officer

In addition to the powers and functions conferred upon him or her elsewhere in this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, a traffic officer may, subject to the provisions of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, and any other law:-

- (a) exercise or perform any of the powers or functions conferred upon an inspector of licences in terms of Section 7;
- (b) when in uniform, require the driver of any vehicle to stop such vehicle;
- (c) inspect, test or cause to be inspected and tested by a person whom he or she considers competent to do so, any part and the functioning of any vehicle, and the equipment thereof, with a view to ascertaining whether such vehicle or the functioning thereof and the equipment comply with the provisions of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996: Provided that no such officer or person instructed by such officer to inspect or test such vehicle shall, in the exercise of the authority hereby conferred upon him or her, dismantle the mechanism or any working parts of any motor vehicle unless he or she is also a qualified motor mechanic or has passed an examination for examiners of vehicles as prescribed, and if he or she has so dismantled such vehicle, he or she shall reassemble the dismantled mechanism or parts unless he or she is requested by the person in charge of the vehicle not to do so;
- (d) ascertain the dimensions of, the load on, or the mass, axle mass load or axle unit mass load of, any vehicle, or the mass of any combination of vehicles, laden or unladen, and, if necessary for the purpose of ascertaining such mass, require any vehicle or combination of vehicles to proceed to a massmeter or mass-measuring device, and if the mass of any vehicle or combination of vehicles exceeds the mass allowed in terms of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, prohibit the operation of such vehicle or combination of vehicles on a public road until such mass has been reduced or adjusted to comply with the National Road Traffic Act, 1996: Provided that where the load on a vehicle includes any hazardous substance as contemplated in the Hazardous Substances Act, 1973 (Act No. 15 of 1973), the reduction and handling of the mass shall be undertaken in terms of that Act;
- (e) drive any vehicle when necessary in the performance of his or her functions if, in the case of any motor vehicle, he or she is licensed to drive a motor vehicle of the class concerned;
- (f) If any person, being the driver or apparently in charge of a vehicle, appears to such officer, by reason of his or her physical or mental condition, howsoever arising, to be incapable for the time being of driving or being in charge of such vehicle, temporarily forbid such person to continue to drive or be in charge of such vehicle and make such arrangements for the safe disposal or placing of the vehicle as in his or her opinion may be necessary or desirable in the circumstances;
- (g) regulate and control traffic upon any public road, and give such directions as may, in his or her opinion, be necessary for the safe and efficient regulation of the traffic, which may include the closing of any public road, and, where he or she is of the opinion that the driver of a motor vehicle is hampering or impeding the normal flow of traffic on a public road, direct the driver to remove the vehicle from such road and to follow another route with the vehicle;
- (h) require any person to furnish his or her name and address and give any other particulars which are required for his or her identification or for any process if such officer reasonably suspects such person of having committed an offence under this Act or the National Road Traffic Act 1996 or in the opinion of such officer he or she is able to give evidence in regard to the commission or suspected commission of any such offence;
- (i) in respect of any motor vehicle, demand from the owner, operator or driver thereof to produce any document prescribed in terms of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996;
- (j) impound any document referred to in paragraph (i) produced to him or her and which in his or her opinion may afford evidence of a contravention of or failure to comply with any provision of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, and where any document is so impounded, the traffic officer shall issue a receipt therefore to the person concerned;
- (k) require any professional driver or the operator or owner of any motor vehicle to produce for inspection and to have a copy made of:-
 - (i) any record or document which that person is required in terms of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 to carry or have in his or her possession or which is required to be affixed to any such motor vehicle; or
 - (ii) any record which that person is required in terms of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 to preserve;
- (l) at any time enter any motor vehicle of an operator and inspect such vehicle;
- (m) at any time enter upon any premises on which he or she has reason to believe that a motor vehicle of an operator is kept or that any record or other document required to be kept in terms of this Act or the National Road

Traffic Act, 1996 are to be found, and inspect such vehicle, and inspect and copy any such record or document, which he or she finds there;

(n) if he or she has reason to believe that an offence under this Act of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 has been committed in respect of any record or document inspected by him or her, impound that record or document, and where any document is so impounded, the traffic officer shall issue a receipt therefore to the person concerned;

(o) inspect any motor vehicle or part thereof and impound any document issued in connection with the registration and licensing of such motor vehicle which relates to such motor vehicle, where it is found that the engine or chassis number of such motor vehicle differs from the engine or chassis number as specified on the document, and direct that such motor vehicle be taken, forthwith, to any police station specified by such traffic officer for police clearance, and may, after such clearance has been obtained, return the impounded document to any person who is entitled thereto, or notify the owner of the motor vehicle concerned that such vehicle must be re-registered, as the case may be; and

(p) require from the owner, operator or driver of a motor vehicle registered or deemed to be registered in any prescribed territory, police clearance in respect of such motor vehicle before allowing that motor vehicle to be taken across the borders of the Republic: Provided that the responsible Member may exempt any owner, operator or driver in the prescribed manner from having to provide such police clearance.

11. Failure to comply with instruction or direction of inspector of licences, traffic officer, examiner of vehicles or peace officer

(1) No person shall:-

(a) fail to comply with any instruction or direction given to him or her by an inspector of licences, traffic officer or examiner of vehicles, or obstruct, hinder or interfere with any inspector of licences, traffic officer or examiner of vehicles in the exercise of any power or the performance of any function under this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996;

(b) fail to comply with any instruction or direction given to him or her by a peace officer, or obstruct, hinder or interfere with any peace officer in the exercise of any power relating to a provision of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 assigned to him or her under Section 334 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977); .

(c) in order to compel any person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) to perform or to abstain from performing any act in respect of the exercise of his or her powers or the performance of his or her functions, or on account of such person having performed or abstained from performing such an act, threaten or suggest the use of violence against or restraint upon such person or any of his or her relatives or dependants, or threaten or suggest any injury to the property of such person or of any of his or her relatives or dependants.

(2) Whenever the production of any document which is not required to be affixed to a vehicle or to be kept with him or her in a vehicle by any person is demanded in terms of Sections 7(b) or 10(i), the production thereof at any police station or office set aside by a competent authority for use by a traffic officer or peace officer, within a period of seven days after being so demanded, shall be deemed to be sufficient compliance with the demand.

(3) Whenever any document is produced in terms of subsection (2) at any police station or office referred to in that subsection, the officer in charge of such police station or office so set aside shall forthwith notify accordingly the officer who made the demand concerned and shall issue an acknowledgement of production of such document to the person producing it.

(4) Where a document is not produced in terms of subsection (2) and any process is to be handed to or served upon a person in terms of Section 54, 56, 72 or 341 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, an inspector of licences, traffic officer or peace officer may require the imprint of the left thumb of the person to whom the process relates on such process, and such person shall be obliged to furnish such imprint in the manner and at the place or places on that document and copies thereof as directed by the inspector, officer or examiner concerned Provided that if it is not possible to obtain the left thumb print of such person, the imprint of any other finger may be required, in which case the finger thus used shall be identified in writing by the inspector, officer or examiner concerned under each imprint of such finger.

12. Impersonating authorised officer or peace officer or inducing any such officer to forsake his or her duty

(1) Any person not being an authorised officer or a peace officer shall not by word, conduct or demeanour, pretend that he or she is an authorised officer or a peace officer.

(2) No person shall connive with or induce or attempt to induce any Authorised officer or peace officer to omit to carry out his or her function or to commit an act in conflict with his or her duty.

INSTRUCTORS

13. Instructor to be registered and graded

- (1) No person shall act as an instructor unless he or she is registered and graded in terms of Section 15.
- (2) No person shall employ any other person as an instructor, or make use of his or her services as an instructor, unless such person is registered as an instructor in terms of Section 15.

14. Application for registration as instructor

- (1) A person desiring to be registered as an instructor shall apply therefore to the responsible Member in the prescribed manner.
- (2) An application referred to in subsection (1) shall be accompanied by the prescribed fees.

15. Registration and grading of instructors

If the responsible Member is satisfied that an applicant referred to in Section 14 fulfils the competency and grading qualifications as prescribed pertaining to the specific category of application, he or she shall register and grade such applicant in the prescribed manner.

16. Suspension and cancellation of registration of instructor

The responsible Member may in the prescribed manner suspend for such period as he or she may deem fit, or cancel, the registration of an instructor if such instructor:-

- (a) is guilty of misconduct in the exercise of his or her powers or the performance of his or her functions; or
- (b) failed to attend or pass an appropriate refresher course at a training centre approved by the responsible Member within a prescribed period.

INSPECTORATE OF TESTING STATIONS AND DRIVING LICENCE TESTING CENTRES

17. Appointment of inspectorate of testing stations

- (1) The responsible Member shall designate a person, authority or organisation as provincial inspectorate of testing stations.
- (2) The powers and functions of the said inspectorate of testing stations in relation to the inspection and the control of standards, grading and functioning of testing stations shall be as prescribed.
- (3) The responsible Member may, in order to defray the expenditure incurred by or on behalf of the said inspectorate for the purposes of performing its functions, prescribe fees to be paid in respect of every examination conducted or test carried out regarding the roadworthiness of a motor vehicle.

18. Appointment of inspectorate of driving licence testing centres

- (1) The responsible Member shall designate a person, an authority or an organisation as provincial inspectorate of driving licence testing centres.
- (2) The powers and functions of the inspectorate in relation to the inspection and the control of standards, grading and functioning of driving licence testing centres shall be as prescribed.
- (3) The responsible Member may, in order to defray the expenditure incurred by or on behalf of the said inspectorate for the purposes of performing its functions, prescribe fees to be paid in respect of inspections carried out in terms of this Section.

PARKING FEES

19. Power of local authority to collect parking fees

- (1) A local authority may, by resolution and for the purposes mentioned in subsection (8), charge fees in respect of the parking of vehicles on any public road or Section thereof within its area of jurisdiction.

(2) The fees referred to in subsection (1) may differ in respect of different public roads or different Sections of the same public road.

(a) If a parking meter is installed for the purpose of collecting fees or with a view to controlling traffic it shall be installed in conjunction with a demarcated parking bay or bays and shall bear thereon a legend indicating the days and hours when payment shall be made for parking and the amount payable for a specific period of parking.

(b) If any method other than a parking-meter is used to collect the fees referred to in subsection (1), provision shall be made for a sign to be displayed at the parking area concerned indicating the days and hours when payment shall be made for parking, the amount payable for a specific period of parking and the manner of payment for a specific period of parking.

(a) The period of time for which a vehicle may be lawfully parked in a parking bay referred to in subsection (3)(a), shall, unless the contrary is proved, be as measured by the parking meter for such bay;

(b) If any method other than a parking meter is used to collect the fees referred to in subsection (1), the period of time for which a vehicle may be lawfully parked in a parking area referred to in subsection (3)(b), shall, unless the contrary is proved, be as measured by means of the method concerned in respect of the vehicle concerned.

(5) Any local authority may establish upon a public road within the area of its jurisdiction ranks or stands (to be known as special parking places) for the parking of passenger-carrying motor vehicles or any class of such vehicles as prescribed, and may make By-laws for the regulation and control of the use of those special parking places:-

(a) to provide for the issue of permits allocating particular special parking places or subdivisions thereof to particular persons or vehicles for their exclusive use;

(b) to prohibit the use of any special parking place or subdivision so allocated by any other person or vehicle;

(c) to charge fees in respect of the use of special parking places; and

(d) to provide for matters incidental thereto:-

Provided that provision may be made in any permit or in any renewal thereof for the limitation of the hours during which the holder shall have the exclusive use of a particular special parking place and during which the use thereof by any other person or vehicle is prohibited.

(6) In the first allocation of any special parking place or subdivision referred to in subsection (5), the local authority shall as far as possible have regard to the length of time during which the applicant therefore has been engaged in the business of transporting passengers for reward by the class of vehicle concerned.

(7) By-laws made in terms of subsection (5) shall provide for the annual renewal, subject to the good conduct of the applicant, of the right to use any such special parking place or subdivision thereof.

(8) All fees collected by a local authority by means of a parking meter, or in respect of any parking area, or special parking place as contemplated in this Section, shall, except with the approval of the responsible Member concerned, be used only to defray the cost of, and incidental to, any scheme, work or undertaking for the improvement or regulation of traffic conditions within the area of such local authority, including the costs of installing and maintaining any such parking meter, parking area or special parking place.

(9) The exercise by a local authority of its powers under this Section shall not render the authority subject to any liability in respect of the loss of or damage to any vehicle or the contents or fittings of any such vehicle while such vehicle is in a parking bay, parking area or special parking place.

PRESUMPTIONS AND LEGAL PROCEDURE

20. Presumption in regard to public road, freeway and public road in urban area

(1) Where in any, prosecution under this Act it is alleged that an offence was committed on a public road, the road concerned shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be a public road.

(2) Where in any prosecution under this Act it is alleged that an offence was committed on a freeway, the road concerned shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be a freeway.

(3) Where in any prosecution under this Act it is alleged that an offence was committed on a public road in an urban area, the road concerned shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be a public road in an urban area.

21. Presumption that owner drove or parked vehicle

(1) Where in any prosecution under this Act, it is material to prove who the driver of a vehicle was, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that such vehicle was driven by the owner thereof.

(2) Whenever a vehicle is parked in contravention of any provision of this Act or a By-law made thereunder, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that such vehicle was parked by the owner thereof.

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that, where the owner of the vehicle concerned is a corporate body or the State, such vehicle was driven or parked, as contemplated in those subsections, by a director or servant of the corporate body or State in the exercise of his or her powers or in the performance of his or her functions as such director or servant or in furthering or endeavouring to further the interests of the corporate body or State: Provided that in the instance of the State, the servant shall be deemed to be the person to whom the vehicle in question has been allocated.

22. Presumption in regard to officers

CHAPTER 6

APPEALS

23. Right of appeal to Premier

(1) Any person, department of State or registering authority who or which is aggrieved:-

(a) at the refusal of the responsible Member to register or grade him, her or it, as the case may be; in any capacity mentioned in the definition of Authorised officer, or as driving licence testing centre, or as a testing station, or as an instructor;

(b) with the suspension or cancellation of any such registration or grading; or

(c) at any other decision of the responsible Member regarding the activities of an operator, may within 21 days after such refusal, suspension or cancellation, or decision in writing lodge an appeal to the Premier against such refusal, suspension or cancellation, or decision, and such person, department of State or registering authority shall at the same time serve a copy of the appeal on the responsible Member.

(2) After receipt of the copy of the appeal referred to in subsection (1), the responsible Member shall forthwith furnish the Premier with his or her reasons for the refusal, suspension or cancellation, or decision to which any such appeal refers.

(3) The Premier may after considering an appeal in terms of subsection (1), give such decision as he or she may deem fit.

(4) An appeal referred to in subsection (1) includes an appeal against any refusal, suspension or cancellation, or decision of the responsible Member relating to the National Road Traffic Act, 1996.

24. Right of appeal to responsible Member

(1) Any person who is aggrieved at the refusal of an examiner for driving licences to issue or authorise the issue to him or her of a learner's or driving licence, may, within 21 days after such refusal, in writing appeal to the responsible Member, and such person shall at the same time serve a copy of the appeal on the examiner concerned.

(2) Any person who at the refusal of an examiner of vehicles or a testing station to issue a roadworthy certificate in respect of a motor vehicle or to authorise the issue of such certificate to him or her, or at the conditions subject to which such certificate was issued to him or her, may, within 21 days after such refusal or after the issue of the certificate subject to the conditions concerned, in writing appeal against any such refusal or conditions concerned to the responsible Member, and such person shall at the same time serve a copy of the appeal on the examiner or the testing station concerned.

- (3) After receipt of the copy of the appeal referred to in subsections (1) and (2), the examiner for driving licences or the examiner of vehicles, as the case may be, shall forthwith furnish the responsible Member with his or her reasons for the refusal to which such appeal refers.
- (4) For the purpose of deciding an appeal in terms of subsection (1), the responsible Member may appoint any person to examine and test the appellant as to his or her competency to drive the class of motor vehicle concerned and may in addition, require each party to the appeal to furnish such information and evidence as may be necessary.
- (5) For the purpose of deciding an appeal in terms of subsection (2), the responsible Member may:-
 - (a) where the appeal concerns a roadworthy certificate, cause the motor vehicle concerned to be examined and tested by an examiner of vehicles nominated by him or her; and
 - (b) require each party to the appeal to furnish such information and evidence as may be necessary.
- (6) The responsible Member may after considering the appeal concerned give such decision as he or she may deem fit.
- (7) An appeal referred to in subsections (1) and (2) includes an appeal against any refusal, suspension or cancellation, or decision by any person with the Province, in terms of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996.

CHAPTER 7

REGULATIONS AND BY-LAWS

25. Power of responsible Member to make regulations

(1) The responsible Member may make regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, in respect of any matter contemplated, required or permitted to be prescribed under this Act and generally for the better carrying out of the provisions or objects of this Act or the National Road Traffic Act, 1996, and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, with respect to:-

- (a) in the case of a motor vehicle, the colour and character of the registration mark or number to be displayed under this Act and the means to be applied to render any such mark or number easily distinguishable, whether by night or by day, when any such vehicle is operated on a public road;
